Bothered and Bewildered

Date and Time: Thursday, April 10 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 95 Allandale Road, St. John's

Bothered and Bewildered by Gail Young

St. John's Players is proud to produce this relatively new piece of theatre concerning the topic of Alzheimer's. Alzheimer's is a disease which has touched most of us and thus one we can relate to. This play is a touching and humorous peek into the world of a family struggling to deal with the realities of the disease. 'Bothered & Bewildered' is a comedy drama about one woman's struggle with Alzheimer's.

The play follows Irene and her two daughters Louise and Beth as the girls lose their mother in spirit but not in body. As her family struggle to come to terms with her Alzheimer's, Irene's past passion for romantic literature blurs with reality. She spends hours discussing how best to write her 'memory book' with her imaginary friend and favourite author Barbara Cartland (the deceased world famous romantic novelist), disclosing long kept family secrets that she would never divulge to her daughters.

This tragi-comedy is about memory, loss, secrets and above all, love.

Performing with an all star cast and directed by Louise Kearley, April 10-13 at the Barbara Barrett Theatre.

Don't miss this beautiful, touching show before it goes to the Provincial Drama Festival in Corner Brook!

NSO Recital 3

Date and Time: Friday, April 18 8:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: Anglican Cathedral, 16 Church Hill, St. John's

Join the Atlantic String Quartet for a profound and moving evening of music with Recital 3. On April 18, 2025, at the beautiful Anglican Cathedral, experience the spiritual and emotional depth of Joseph Haydn's masterpiece, "The Seven Last Words of Christ."

This extraordinary work, originally composed for the Good Friday service, consists of seven meditative sonatas, each reflecting on the final words spoken by Christ on the cross. Haydn's music is both powerful and contemplative, offering a journey through sorrow, reflection, and ultimately, hope.

The Anglican Cathedral provides a stunning and acoustically rich setting, enhancing the intimate and reverent atmosphere of this performance. The Atlantic String Quartet's interpretation promises to bring out the intricate beauty and solemn grace of Haydn's compositions.

Don't miss this special opportunity to experience one of Haydn's most profound works in a setting that perfectly complements its spiritual significance. Secure your tickets now for Recital 3 and join us for an evening of reflective and moving music with the Atlantic String Quartet at the Anglican Cathedral. Tickets are available at the ACC Box Office (729-3900), online at www.artsandculturecentre.com and at the door.

Seedy Saturday St. John's

Date and Time: Saturday, April 19 10:00 am - 4:30 pm

Address: Memorial University Botanical Garden, 306 Mount Scio Rd

The fourth annual Seedy Saturday St. John's is happening April 19, 2025, from 10:00am-4:30pm. Join fellow gardeners, homesteaders, and seed savers for a day filled with learning, networking, and seed sharing! Seedy Saturday will include information booths from a variety of groups and individuals active in the home gardening, homesteading, and food security communities, plus workshops, opportunities to share, trade, and discover seeds, and even a Kids' Zone with activities and learning for our youngest gardeners. Workshop topics include seed starting and composting. In addition to sharing of seeds, participants are encouraged to bring along any gently used garden tools, books, magazines, etc., they would like to pass along to a new home.

All activities are free of charge. All are welcome, with our without seeds to share! Please note that the Garden's cultivated areas and trails will not be open during the event.

Seedy Saturdays take place all over the country and have been supported by Seeds of Diversity for more than 30 years. The events are independent and locally organized, with a focus on promoting the continued use of heritage and open-pollinated seeds, education around seed saving and environmentally responsible growing, with an opportunity to participate in a seed exchange.

Seedy Saturday St. John's presented by Memorial University Botanical Garden, Food Producers Forum, Mercy Centre for Ecology & Justice, Autism Society NL.
